Mr. Basharat Hussain is an active and intelligent boy. His father was a working as farmer in his village but unfortunately the COVID-19 pandemic took his life. He left behind five small kids with a widow in poor economic condition. They have nothing to manage their livings. One of his relative took him to Khpal Kor Foundation (Orphanage) where Mr. Basharat Hussain has been admitted with aim to get better education to bring happier days to his family. He dreams to be an Engineer one day. He needs support to achieve his dream.
