Mr. Mian Sanaullah's father was a Labour and was earning moderate income to feed his family but unfortunately an unexpected mishap occurred to this family when his father lost his life due to heart failure. He left behind a family in a very miserable condition. After his death, the family is faced with severe economic crisis. For widow it seemed impossible to educate her small children. Luckily, Mr. Mian Sanaullah have been admitted in Khpal Kor Foundation (Orphanage) where he is now being provided with free of cost education and all other facilities. He needs support to realize his dream of becoming a doctor.
