Mr. Zeeshan Hassan is an orphan boy from upper Swat. His father was a factory worker in Karachi and lost his life due to sudden blast occurred inside the workplace. He was just an infant when his father left him with two brother and mother. He was the only sustainer of his family. After his death the family had no option to arrange their livings. During this hard time, their maternal uncles extended helping hand by providing them space for living in their own home. But they are faced with hardship to meet other needs of daily life. Mr. Zeeshan Hassan has got admission in Khpal Kor Foundation (Orphanage) where he gets quality education and all other facilities with a dream to become a Doctor to bring better change to his family.
